

8. Dividend Payment Policy

The policy will analyze dividend payment in the rate of 30%-50% of net profit of Consolidated Financial Statements in each accounting period after legal reserve deduction and deficit carry-forward (if any). According to the policy, the dividend payment depends on cash flow, investment plan, condition, and regulation in contracts, in which the company is being bonded with, as well as necessity and other suitability in the future.